Because it's 2015: End Violence Against Women.

1155 names of women and children; those killed as a result of intimate femicide in Ontario from 2000-2014, as well as missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada were laid out for this picture. If we tried to add all names of women and children murdered in intimate femicide situations in the rest of Canada from 2000-2014 they would not fit in this large room.
